THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. The vacated premises of houses and shops in Hsinfou (新埠) were purchased by the Chinese Communists and the government-owned South China Construction Company began rebuilding them. On 5 January 1952, one consignment of building materials, including 1,500 bags of cement and 50 tons of reinforcement rods arrived at Hsinfou. Four hundred workmen were engaged in destroying the civilian buildings. The space will be used for the construction of barracks for the South China Navy.
2. On 6 January, eight 100-ton wooden vessels took 500 tons of military supplies from the Hsinfou warehouses and set sail for Swatow, escorted by two gunboats.
